Halloween at Mark Twain Lake

Mark Twain Lake, October 2, 2007---Carve your pumpkins, bring out the candy and don your costume; Halloween is almost upon us, at least, at Mark Twain Lake. The weekend of October 19 and 20th campsites at Indian Creek Campground will turn into a Halloween decorated village, a place of colored lights, black cats, and family fun. There are 64 sites in East Loop but only 16 sites still open for decorating. If you want to decorate a campsite you will need to call the Mark Twain Project Office at 573-735-4097 and ask for Diane.

Make it a full weekend by walking the Landing's "Trail of Terror" and the Swinkey Corn Maze offered each weekend in October.
